

Aurélien Martin (*1993, Geneva) is a visual artist and exhibition curator. He studied at the Haute Ecole d'Art et de Design de Genève between 2012 and 2017. He holds a bachelor's and a master's degree in visual arts. Aurélien Martin lives and works in Geneva.

At the time, he received the Prix Neumann de la Ville de Genève 2017 and the Bourses de la Ville 2018 at Centre d'Art de Genève. His personal work in sculpture and installation has been presented numerous times in Switzerland and abroad in solo, group exhibitions and fairs. Between 2019 and 2022, he was the beneficiary of an artist's studio made available by Fonds municipal d'art contemporain (FMAC).

He is represented by Fabienne Levy Gallery in Lausanne and Annex14 in Zurich.

Co-founder of Jeudi, artist-run space located in Geneva (2013-2017), Aurélien Martin has been organizing and producing numerous exhibitions with local and international artists. Since 2018 he runs a nomad solo project called la vraie vie. In 2017, he edited and published a book Quelques artist-run spaces en Suisse, a collection of interviews conducted with founders of art spaces.
